Biographie

Photographer and filmmaker, she works also as a freelance photographer for magazines.

Her personal, artistic, and political work shows her friends and lovers in their intimacy, far away from the clichés of the standard gay representations. Her models, from the underground queer Parisian scene, travel between genders. She shows their sexy, troubled and confusing identities.

Her shifted and provocative art-videos are shown in international exhibitions, queer festivals, and were screened on TV channels.

She founded her own queer and feminist art organization: " Les Très Très Méchantes Filles" and organizes parties and exhibitions.

Since she made "One Night Stand", her first feature porn movie, she writes a blog diary of her filming experience about interaction between Art, Genderqueer, Feminism and Pornography.

"One Night Stand" a DIY romantic queer porn, won the first price in Berlin Porn Film festival 2006 and the special price of the jury at Copenhagen film fest 2007.

" The Apple " is her new short video, starring Wendy Delorme.

Currently she's working on her next long movie , a queer p*rn calling

"UNDERGROUND, Paris to Berlin"

Next summer she's on European tour with seven performers and artist to direct a road movie calling

"The QueerXshow"
